

SCHOOL OF PSYCHOLOGY SCHOLARSHIPS

DR. DORI PELZ-SHERMAN MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP: a scholarship to support new and/or continuing students who are doing research involving individuals with mental health challenges. The fund was launched in memory of Fielding alum Dr. Dori Pelz-Sherman, who passed away on July 13, 2017.

ERNESTINE MAGANA BAKER ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIP: established by Faculty Emerita and Trustee Nancy Baker, PhD, in memory of her Mother, Ernestine Magagna Baker, supports students, particularly those who are in the first generation of their family to attend a four year college and/or graduate school.

FRIEDA FROMM-REICHMANN AWARD recognizes excellence in the general area of psychoanalytic psychotherapy, supports research and scholarship in psychodynamic pursuits, and publicly acknowledges a psychology doctoral student's achievements.

JERRY NIMS SCHOLARSHIP: established in memory of Dr. Jerry Nims, one of the Fielding's early Clinical faculty members and a strong advocate for the program, is for the most outstanding scholarly publications/presentations by a student during the calendar year.

MAGIC FEET SCHOLARSHIP aims to offset the cost of attending national session. Fundraising auction and awards managed by Clinical Psychology students.

KJELL RUDESTAM HONORARY AWARD established by Faculty Emeritus, Kjell Rudestam, PhD in appreciation of Fielding's Clinical Psychology Program and its community. The scholarship award is for outstanding students who have contributed substantially to Fielding's psychology community.

MICHAEL R. NEAL LEGACY AWARD: Supports Media Psychology students who demonstrate outstanding academic achievement, media innovation, and collaboration with and support of fellow media scholars. The award was established in memory of alum Mike Neal.

PATRICIA M. HODGES ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIP IN PSYCHOLOGY: Awarded to single parent Clinical Psychology doctoral students who have begun their dissertation, and created by the family of longtime faculty Patricia M. Hodges, PhD.

THE DR. SHERRY L. HATCHER HONORARY SCHOLARSHIP FUND, ENDOWED BY DR. LIZ A. HARDY & MR. RICK OMLOR: Established in recognition of Fielding faculty member Dr. Sherry L. Hatcher to support Fielding students' significant work so they can serve others in meaningful ways.

STEPHEN RUFFINS MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP was established to recognize the legacy of Fielding faculty member, Stephen Ruffins, PhD. This scholarship supports National Session attendance of students who are primary caregivers for a dependent household member in understanding of the emotional, mental, and financial challenge that the caregiver role represents for the student.

WILL KOUW AWARD was established in memory of a beloved faculty member who made unique and vital contributions to the Clinical Psychology program. The Award is for students engaged in scholarship, research, clinical experience, or other professional goals that incorporate Existential/Phenomenological theory or principles.